DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Office Depot 2000 Catalog for the reasons of record.

In response to this rejection, Applicants argue that claim 18 has been amended to include means for holding absorbent material and means for remove ably mounting the claimed strip to the cover. The Office Depot 2000 catalog lacks any disclosure of any of the means for performing these functions as disclosed in the specification.

Applicant's argument has been considered but is not convincing. The double sided tape (i.e. a strip) disclosed in the Office Depot 2000 catalog contains adhesive on both sides of the strip. The adhesive on either side of the strip is considered a "means" which can perform the functions of holding an absorbent material and being remove ably mounted to a cover.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 8-17, 20, and 22 are allowed.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
